

107-55877

10-405

THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington

SECRET

NSC REVIEW COMPLETED

February 7, 1958

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Assistant to the President
The Attorney General
The Deputy Secretary of Defense
The Deputy Assistant to the President
The Director of Central Intelligence ✓
The Chairman, Federal Communications Commission
The Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
The Deputy Under Secretary of State
for Political Affairs
The Executive Secretary, National Security Council
Mr. Roger W. Jones, Bureau of the Budget
Mr. J. Patrick Coyne, National Security Council

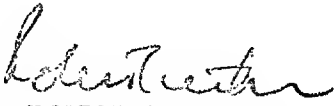

SUBJECT: Proposed Legislation to Permit Reciprocal Agreements
for Radio Communications at Embassies

REFERENCE: Memorandum of February 4, 1958, same subject, from the Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

The following decisions were reached at the meeting on the subject held yesterday at the White House offices, presided over by The Assistant to the President:

(a) Later in this session of Congress, at a time to be determined by the Deputy Assistant to the President, members of appropriate committees of the Congress will be consulted informally relative to seeking legislation at this session along the lines indicated in the enclosure to the reference memorandum.

(b) The Chairman, FCC, will study the likely availability of frequencies in that part of the radio spectrum which might be requested by foreign governments in the event legislation were enacted along the lines indicated in the reference memorandum.

ROBERT CUTLER
Special Assistant to the President

SECRET